Kilkenny House Announces Irish Music Schedule for March 2010

Cranford's Irish Pub Offers Mix of Traditional and Contemporary Music Throughout the Month

March 1, 2010 –The Kilkenny House in Cranford, NJ, has announced its schedule of Irish music for the month of March, including all day on St. Patrick's Day, Wednesday, March 17, 2010. Each Sunday of the month will feature traditional Irish songs and opportunities for "open mic" performances by patrons.

There will also be several special performances throughout the month, including Thursday, March 11, when locally based Irish rockers The Itinerants will bring their energetic brand to the Kilkenny House. On Sunday, March 14, Jack Lukeman – better known as Jack L – makes a special guest appearance. One of Ireland's most popular entertainers, Jack L is a multi-platinum selling artist renowned for his remarkable live shows and was a nominee in 2010 for Best Irish Male Vocalist at the Meteor Awards ("The Irish Grammys").

On St. Patrick's Day, Kilkenny House will have live Irish music all day long with Brian Kennedy in the afternoon and Dave McBride in the evening.
